Missouri Gaming Commission Adds Two to Exclusion List

St. Joseph, Missouri, September 25th, 2007- The Missouri Gaming Commission is adding two convicted felons to its Exclusion List. Dennis G. McCloud and Ellis Quinn, Jr. have been added to the 11 person list of those not allowed in any Missouri Riverboat Casino.

Executive Director Gene McNary says "the Exclusion List has been dormant for years. It's now our policy to utilize the riverboat gaming casino exclusion in cases where a crime has been committed and there's a gambling nexus. In the coming months we anticipate adding the names of gamblers excluded in other states."

Dennis McCloud, a former D.A.R.E. officer in Hannibal, was convicted in 2000 of Felony Mail Fraud and Conversion to Own Property of Another in the United States District Court, Eastern District of Missouri. McCloud was sentenced to twenty-four months in prison. Ellis Quinn Jr., of Nashville, Tennessee was convicted in 2006 in the 7th Judicial Circuit Court of Clay County, Missouri of two counts of Felony Cheating at a Gambling Game. Quinn was then sentenced to three years in the Missouri Department of Corrections on each count.
