Missouri Gaming Commission Receives Request From NCAA to Exclude Certain Wagers

Jefferson City, Missouri –The Missouri Gaming Commission received a letter on January 15, 2026, from the National Collegiate Athletic Association. The letter requested the exclusion of wagers on the performance of individual student athletes (also known as player prop bets) and first-half wager spreads on men’s and women’s basketball games in the NCAA. The NCAA’s letter has been posted on the Missouri Gaming Commission website for public review.

The Commission will be accepting public comments on this request through Wednesday, January 21, 2026, at 12:00 p.m. CST. Comments can be sent to PublicRelation@mgc.dps.mo.gov.
